Request for More Time to Amend Complaint as Ordered by Hon. Loretta A. Preska

February 26, 2016

Dear Hon. Preska:

By order Posted to me on January 26, 2016 (Exhibit #1) you requested that I amend my complaint for the above-noted docket. In your order you instructed me file my amended complaint within 30 (thirty) days of the date of your order. I know I have already tested the court's patience a bit and am humbled by the court's allowances already afforded to me. I need to request a further extension to file the amended complaint for the following three reasons:

1.) This morning the NY State Court of appeals published a favorable verdict on an appeal I filed to reverse a disorderly conduct conviction I was found guilty of in October of 2012 (Exhibit #2). The wrongful conviction sprung from events that transpired at a midtown bar where I was assaulted, and called the police on 9/24/2011 for assistance on the night that Occupy Wall Protests raged for the first time through our city. Because the District Attorney's office had a vendetta against me they had me arrested by the police who beat me and then lied about the facts in court triggering a conviction. The same ADA, Kenya Wells, who pursued a conviction against me as a victim of domestic violence and trafficking prosecuted this case and it is integrally linked with the aggravated harassment case I had dismissed and sealed on July 24, 2012 that is the locus of the complaint I have already filed with the SDNY. I would like to include this case in my federal lawsuit currently pending in your court part and would like time to integrate the facts of that case into the one presently at hand as the illegal and unlawful actions of the Manhattan District Attorney's office towards me as a victim at stake are the same and orchestrated by the same parties within the MDAO and NYPD conterminously. PLEASE may I have an extension to integrate these new facts JUST PUBLISHED THIS MORNING on 2/26/2016 please? I have included the Appellant decision published this morning for your review (Exhibit #2).

2.) I have been energetically advocating finding a lawyer that will steward my class action(s) claim(s) and while attorney Jane Byrialsen wanted to take the case she feels her inexperience with class actions prohibits her from taking the case and she has asked her friend, Joshua Moskowitz, to take the case (Exhibit #3). Mr. Moskowitz is a former student of Alex Reinert, who I know from my work with the Jails Action Coalition and who has been giving me small bits of guidance for the past several years and who is too busy to take the case as he is working on freeing Gitmo prisoners but he has encouraged Mr. Moskowitz to assist me. Mr. Moskowitz has told me that he is very interested in my case but that he will ONLY have time to review my case after the second week in March as he is troubled with another case presently. I need a strong lawyer to steward me and if Mr. Moskowitz is interested in my case I would humbly ask the court to consider granting me more time to try to attain his representation and maintain my ability to form a class to represent the other victims I know have been felled as a victim by the same malicious practices of the MDAO that I was.

- 3.) Yesterday, on 2/25/2016 I received a 30-page log of advocacy notes (Exhibit #4) by CONNECT NYC, an organization that fought hard for my dismissal with the MDAO. The logs reveal multiple points of contact with Deputy DA Audrey Moore, the Chief of the MDAO Special Victims' Unit, proving that Ms. Moore indeed had knowledge of and control over my case and did not follow the mandates of the Crime Victims Statutes as outlined by NY State Executive and Social Service Laws. I also need further time to integrate the information and documentation on this log into my complaint and to strengthen the thrust of the actions I outline against her. I had requested last year that CONNECT provide me with all logs and records but for some reason they did not turn over the logs until yesterday. I had to enlist Dorchen Leidholdt, Director of the Center for Battered Women's' Legal Services at Sanctuary for Families, to advocate on my behalf to receive the proper logs proving multiple points of contact between my advocates and the Deputy Chief of the MDAO's Special Victims' Unit: proving her inaction and deliberate denial of services to me as is mandated by the Social Services Laws and Executive Laws of New York.

Because of these three reasons: 1.) publication of the positive result of my appeal THIS MORNING, 2.) because of the potential to retain Mr. Moskowitz, and 3.) because of the new evidence of the logs attained just yesterday from Connect NYC I request another adjournment to refile my complaint in light of these new developments/evidence. I have re-written my complaint as to your instructions but am leery to turn it in knowing that I have not had time to incorporate the new developments into it. I am a Pro Se litigant and learning as I go so please forgive my miss-steps if this request is again found to be a burden to your docket and annoying. I hope you will be as surprised by the appeal result from the State Appellant division being published this morning as I am. I believe it is more very strong evidence that the Manhattan District Attorney's office acted unlawfully against me and in violation of my constitutional rights and it is integral to my case that these considerations be included in my complaint.

I would like to request a furtherance of deadline for turning in an amended complaint. Ideally I would appreciate 60 days but even 30 days would suffice for me to rewrite but regrettably that most-likely is not enough time to bring a new attorney up to speed and get them to write a new complaint. I know I have tested your Honor's patience already and I am really embarrassed to ask for more time but I could not have possibly predicted that my appeal would drop in my favor this morning. Please may I have an additional 60 days?

If you decide that I am not to be allowed more time to re-write I am happy to turn-in the revised complaint that I have drafted and now re-written with your guidance in mind twice. I took into consideration your stewardship on passed to me in your kind "Order to Amend."

I'm trying to avoid un-necessary and redundant work incurred by myself, you and your clerk/court part staff. Please again accept my MEA CULPAS for any inconvenience, hassle, or disturbance this request causes you or your court staff. Thank you so much for taking the time to consider allowing me to re-write my complaint with this new evidence and new actionable claims in mind.

Yours, Kelly Price

EXHIBIT # 1

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

KELLY PRICE,

Plaintiff,

-against-

DETECTIVE LINDA SIMMONS ET AL.,

Defendants.

15-CV-5871 (LAP)

ORDER

LORETTA A. PRESKA, Chief United States District Judge:

Plaintiff filed this action pro se. On October 19, 2015, the Court held that Plaintiff's amended complaint failed to state a claim on which relief could be granted but granted Plaintiff leave to amend her complaint. Plaintiff did not file an amended complaint, and the deadline for doing so expired. On December 23, 2015, the Court therefore dismissed this action.

Shortly thereafter, on December 28, 2015, Plaintiff filed motions (ECF Nos. 8-9) seeking reconsideration of the order of dismissal and an extension of time to amend her complaint. The Court construes Plaintiff's motion for reconsideration as arising under Rule 59(e) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and Local Civil Rule 6.3. For the reasons set forth below, Plaintiff's motion for reconsideration is granted.

DISCUSSION

On January 22, 2016, before the Court ruled on Plaintiff's motion for reconsideration, Plaintiff filed a notice of appeal. Generally, "[t]he filing of a notice of appeal is an event of jurisdictional significance – it confers jurisdiction on the court of appeals and divests the district court of its control over those aspects of the case involved in the appeal." Griggs v. Provident Consumer Discount Co., 459 U.S. 56, 58 (1982); Ryan v. United States Line Co., 303 F.2d 430, 434 (2d Cir. 1962) (holding that the docketing of a notice of appeal "ousts the district court of jurisdiction except insofar as it is reserved to it explicitly by statute or rule.”). By statute, however, “[i]f a party files a notice of appeal after the court announces or enters a judgment – but before it disposes of [a Rule 59(e) motion] – the notice becomes effective to appeal a judgment or order, in whole or in part, when the order disposing of the last such remaining motion is entered.” Fed. R. App. P. 4(a)(4)(B)(i).

Here, Plaintiff’s appeal was docketed after entry of judgment but before the Court disposed of Plaintiff’s December 28, 2015 motion under Rule 59(e). Under Fed. R. App. P. 4(a)(4)(B)(i), the Court thus has jurisdiction to resolve the Rule 59(e) motion because the notice of appeal is not yet effective. See, e.g., Stewart Park & Reserve Coal. Inc. (SPARC) v. Slater, 374 F. Supp. 2d 243, 252 (N.D.N.Y. 2005) (reasoning that “application of Appellate Rule 4 effectively renders the appeal to the Court of Appeals in abeyance pending the district court’s determination of the post-judgment motion.”).

Reconsideration of a court’s judgment under Rule 59(e) is an “extraordinary remedy to be employed sparingly in the interests of finality and conservation of scarce judicial resources.” USA Certified Merchants, LLC v. Koebel, 273 F. Supp. 2d 501, 503 (S.D.N.Y. 2003) (citations omitted). “A court is justified in reconsidering its previous ruling if: (1) there is an intervening change in the controlling law; (2) new evidence not previously available comes to light; or (3) it becomes necessary to remedy a clear error of law or to prevent obvious injustice.” Slater, 374 F. Supp. 2d at 253 (citing Atl. States Legal Found., Inc. v. Karg Bros., Inc., 841 F. Supp. 51, 53 (N.D.N.Y. 1993)).

The Court dismissed this action on the ground that Plaintiff failed to file an amended complaint as directed. In her application, Plaintiff indicates that despite her failure to file an amended complaint, she has been taking various steps to seek relief, including seeking counsel and additional evidence. It therefore appears that Plaintiff did not intend to fail to prosecute this action. Accordingly, the Court grants Plaintiff's motion to reconsider the order of dismissal.

CONCLUSION

The Clerk of Court is directed to mail a copy of this order to Plaintiff and note service on the docket. Plaintiff's motion for reconsideration (ECF No. 8) is granted, and the Clerk of Court is directed to vacate the order of dismissal (ECF No. 6) and reopen this action. Plaintiff's motion for an extension of time to file an amended complaint (ECF No. 9) is granted, and the Court directs Plaintiff to file an amended complaint, as set forth in the October 19, 2015 order to amend, within 30 days of this order.¹

The Court certifies under 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a)(3) that any appeal from this order would not be taken in good faith, and therefore in forma pauperis status is denied for the purpose of an appeal. See Coppedge v. United States, 369 U.S. 438, 444-45 (1962).

SO ORDERED.

Dated: January 26, 2016
New York, New York

LORETTA A. PRESKA
Chief United States District Judge

¹ As Plaintiff points out, her initial complaint was filed on July 24, 2015, and thus the order to amend should have indicated that her claims under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 arising more than three years prior to July 24, 2015, appeared to be time barred – not claims arising more than three years prior to the filing of her amended complaint on August 13, 2015.

SUPREME COURT, APPELLATE TERM, FIRST DEPARTMENT

PRESENT: Schoenfeld, J.P., Shulman, Hunter, Jr., JJ.

571134/12

The People of the State of New York, Respondent, -

against

Kelly Price, Defendant-Appellant.

Defendant appeals from a judgment of the Criminal Court of the City of New York, New York County (Robert M. Mandelbaum, J.), rendered October 18, 2012, convicting him, after a nonjury trial, of two counts of disorderly conduct, and imposing sentence.

Per Curiam.

Judgment of conviction (Robert M. Mandelbaum, J.), rendered October 18, 2012, reversed, on the law and the facts, and the accusatory instrument is dismissed.

The verdict convicting defendant of two counts of disorderly conduct (see Penal Law §§ 240.20[2], [3]), was not based on legally sufficient evidence and was, in any event, against the weight of the evidence. The trial evidence showed that defendant called police after she was asked to leave a midtown Manhattan bar on a Saturday evening; the responding officers observed defendant to be visibly upset and they tried to calm her down; upon interviewing people inside the bar, the officers informed defendant that there was no action that they could take on her behalf; defendant was angry, but walked away from the scene; and that as defendant was approximately 20 feet away from the officers, she turned her head and shouted an epithet at them. On these facts, defendant's intent to cause public inconvenience, annoyance, or alarm, or recklessness in creating such a risk, was not established beyond a reasonable doubt (see Penal Law § 240.20 People v Baker, 20 NY3d 354 [2013]). Defendant's conduct did not indicate an intent to breach the peace, or even constitute an act from which a breach of the peace was likely to occur (see People v Johnson, 22 NY3d 1162 [2014]; People v Baker, supra; People v Pritchard, 27 NY2d 246 [1970]; People v Smith, 19 NY2d 212 [1967]).

THIS CONSTITUTES THE DECISION AND ORDER OF THE COURT.

I concur I concur I concur

Dear Ms. Bryialsen: I'm in receipt of a letter from the City Law Dept today sent to the Appellant division requesting to be removed from the appellant docket for three of the individuals I named in my complaint: det. Linda Simmons, former Commissioner of Domestic Violence Rose Pierre Louis, and NYPD Inspector Obe.

The law Dept notes that my motion to reconsider was granted but wanted to strike its name from representing the these three women from the appellant docket nonetheless.

Seems the City Law Dept is Very concerned about my case. No parties have even been served! Why are they even monitoring the docket?

Interesting that they have already determined that they will NOT be representing them however..

I thought this would be important info for you to impart to whomever you are dining with tonight.
